The government's objectives for the community are built around U a R c Q a ' Ec c R c Pa . With the underpinning principles of integrity, accountability and consultation, which are applied to carry out the activities outlined in this report, UQ contributes to the Queensland Government's key objectives for the community:

- safeguarding our health
- supporting jobs
- backing small business
- making it for Queensland
- building Queensland
- growing our regions
- investing in skills
- backing our frontline services
- protecting the environment.

UQ contributes directly to by ensuring Queenslanders have the skills they need to find meaningful jobs and set up pathways for the future; and both directly and indirectly – through its research and community liaison activities – to advance Queensland's other priorities.

In order to achieve our vision of a r n a r ab tt r r , we require sustained focus and a commitment to our 3 long-term objectives.

To a n t a n - na n n a at - n ma t ta n n b t - n a n a m th ba r te , we will go beyond ensuring that we develop graduates who can easily gain employment. UQ's students are motivated and highly capable: we want to develop an educational experience that maximises our students' personal and academic development. We will support them to become enterprising, independent thinkers with the leadership, creativity and problem-solving skills that empower them to create positive change within industry, academia, the workplace, and society more generally.
